

I KNOW YOU'RE HERE

(English version of "So che sei qui" – Messa della concordia)

I know you're here
This very moment
I know you're here,
Inside of me.
Within the void
Is where I'll find you,
And now I know
You live in me.

What can I say
To you my Lord?
What can I say,
For you know all.
I'll listen for you
In my silence
And I will wait
To hear your voice.

And you will tell,
Of things unspoken,
And you will speak
Of the Father.
You'll fill my soul
With boundless love,
And I will know you
As you are.

I feel your peace
Within my being.
A joy that you
Alone can give
The air is filled
With Heaven's essence
A world replete with happiness.

Your presence here
Fills me with wonder,
The Word of God,
And humanity.
No time or space
Can ever matter
For eternity's
Come down to earth

What will it be
This newfound Heaven?
What will it be
This life?
You'll be with us
Forever
Ever
You all in us
And we in you

What will it be
This newfound Heaven?
What will it be
This new life?
You'll be with us
Forever
Ever
You all in us
And we in you
